FEEDBACK:

"I advertise online with Derbyshire Cottages, part of cottages.com, but at least half of my business comes from the advert in Pure. Bookings come from visitors and also from the families of local people who read Pure. I started reading the magazine before I moved to Buxton – it's very upbeat and has taught me a lot about the town. As far as I'm concerned, I can't afford not to advertise."

Jane Crowther, The Regency, Buxton

"We tried advertising in various publications when we launched and Pure is the only one that we can prove worked. People came into the showroom with the magazine, asking if we were Matt or Tom – they had read the article and really got involved in our story. We had such great results from the first feature, so it was a no-brainer to do another one when we wanted to celebrate three years in business. The response was just as good."

"The good thing about Pure is that it isn't just pages and pages of adverts; people notice you when you're in. People stop you in the street to say they've seen the advert – they engage with us all the time."

Matt Heywood, Studio 10 Kitchens, Bakewell

"I can highly recommend advertising with Pure Peak. We have never done any advertising in 15 years but decided to do so with Pure as it targets local residents and visitors through fascinating local articles. The response was fantastic and inspired us to take out a full inside page advert... which has brought even better results! Thanks for a thoroughly professional service."

Tim Jones, Stone Art Jewellery, Bakewell

"We don't normally advertise, but we wanted to shout about our 20th anniversary – so many people read Pure and we thought we'd give it a try. We didn't have any expectations, but we were really surprised at the response. Advertising in Pure has brought us new local customers and visitors who have picked up the magazine in town. It's also brought back former customers who hadn't tried us for a while."

"We were impressed, and when our anniversary celebrations finished, we decided to continue advertising with Pure. It's a good magazine – I've always enjoyed reading it – and it's nice to be part of it."

Sarah James, Velu, Buxton

"Pure did a feature on my shop when it first opened and the response was fantastic. The article brought lots of people in to see what the shop was all about and some of my regular customers first came to me through the magazine."

"Everyone in the surrounding area reads Pure so you are guaranteed great coverage and the team has been a pleasure to deal with at all times. For me it really got the ball rolling in the local area and has helped customers find me – I am very grateful."

Isla Dawes, Isla Fine Arts, Buxton

"We have advertised in Pure from its very first issue. We select it for several reasons: the quality of the printing, which is an important factor when reproducing artwork; it allows us to keep local people informed about our exhibitions; it's a very good read! Unlike other free magazines, it contains relevant news about the area and interesting articles about local people."

Pauline Townsend, High Peak Artists
